What your Covid-19 Service includes

Covid-19 Impact Assessment Reports

Retail Economics conducts extensive research and analysis on the impact of the coronavirus (Covid-19) on the UK retail and leisure industries. Our service consists of frequent and timely analysis and updates in a variety of formats so you can absorb the information quickly in a way that best suits you.

Covid-19 Quick Responses

Key Covid-19 retail related updates direct to your inbox. Our Covid-19 Quick Responses provide you with the very latest Covid-19 updates from retailers and the wider industry on the key impact of the crisis, as and when it happens - delivered directly to your inbox.

Consumer Panel Surveys

Use our proprietary consumer panel data to accurately gauge consumer sentiment as events unfold. For critical durations, we conduct a fortnightly survey using a panel of over 2,000 households to measure behavioural shifts, confidence and sentiment. This has proved to be a very accurate indicator of future trading vulnerabilities for the industry.

Covid-19 Newsletters

A succinct monthly round up of the key Covid-19 retail developments in a handy pdf. Each month we produce a summary of all the need-to-know information related to the impact of the virus on the retail and leisure sector broken down by sector (e.g. clothing and footwear, food) and channel.

Covid-19 Economic Chartbook

A weekly summary of all the critical macroeconomic data and trends in an easily digestible chartbook format. Your chartbooks are more detailed and reflect how consumers and retailers react to coronavirus developments. Particularly, it shows how shopping behaviour is being influenced by various factors.
